BEST PRACTICES

- Deliver the right message to the right audience through the right channels at the right time
- Choose a variety of marketing content formats, channels and frequency based on defined target markets and their unique interests and challenges
- Identify and communicate your competitive advantage and corporate distinction
- Focus on benefits, not features by creating customercentric content

- Monitor the competition
- Collaborate with other departments and stakeholders
- Refresh and repurpose content consistently
- Continually measure results and refine tactics, set realistic expectations about ROI
- Focus on benefits, not features by creating customercentric content

CONTENT DISTRIBUTION

The 2nd Most Important Activity

- Content distribution is the second most important segment of your content marketing strategy
- Requires careful planning

PUBLISH Share Nurture Promote

Show Your Authority

THE CONTENT DISTRIBUTION PROCESS ALLOWS YOU TO:

- 1. Educate your target market
- 2. Show your authority
- 3. Create brand recognition, brand credibility, and brand awareness

GOOGLE'S REQUIREMENTS

The 800-pound Gorilla Has Rules

- Be very specific, work on a niche and focus on narrow topics
- Content distribution will generate inbound links
- Link keywords, phrases or long-tail keywords
- Embed the URL into a keyword, phrase or long-tail keyword
- Do not create links to only your website's home page
- Diversify your distribution to show your popularity
